I hereby fully and freely consent to my participation in this study

I understand the nature and purpose of the procedures involved in this study. These have been communicated to me on the information sheet accompanying this form.

I understand and acknowledge that the investigation is designed to promote scientific knowledge and that the University of Bristol will use the data I provide for no purpose other than research.

I understand the data I provide will be anonymised and my name will be linked to a participant number, and securely stored on an encrypted drive, solely to enable my right to withdraw from this study. No other link will be kept between my name or other identifying information and my study data.

I understand that the University of Bristol may use the data collected for this study in a future research project but that the conditions on this form under which I have provided the data will still apply.

I agree to the University of Bristol keeping and processing the data I have provided during the course of this study. I understand that this data will be used only for the purpose(s) set out in the information sheet, and my consent is conditional upon the University complying with its duties and obligations under the Data Protection Act.

I understand that bouldering is sport that comes with some risk and I agree to climb well within my means during the course of this study and will not take any actions that could increase risk of injury.

I understand that the product I will be trialling is a prototype and will not take any information it provides as advice.

I understand that it is my responsibility to assess my own safety at all times whilst climbing or using the product, and to ignore or stop using the product whenever I feel necessary.
